

Baltic Journal of Management (BJM) publishes high quality peer-reviewed research on major disciplines in management. It welcomes empirical and conceptual articles, including literature reviews, and encourages research into interdisciplinary, international and comparative standpoints on contemporary management issues.

The BJM coverage includes, but is not limited to such areas as:

- ▶ Strategic management
- ▶ Decision making
- ▶ Marketing
- ▶ Human resource management and organisational studies
- ▶ Operations, quality and supply chain management
- ▶ Innovation and enterprise
- ▶ Corporate social responsibility

Submissions should be between 6,000 – 11,000 words and submitted by ScholarOne Manuscripts, the online submission and peer review system. Registration and access is available at <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/bjom>.
