

Graduates' feedback on the master's programme in International Business

"Choosing RISEBA was a double successive decision in my career path, where European Business studies gave me a boost to gain work experience in London and safely returned me home for a master's programme in International Business that successfully matched with Nordic management philosophies at work and allowed to develop knowledge necessary to take leadership in transformation projects that came with first so desired promotion."

"RISEBA International Business programme gave me a lot of new competences. Presented by tutors from different countries, studies were involving and inspiring. International knowledge acquired during the studies was actual and very practical. I found it very useful in my daily job and it improved my efficiency as a manager and increased my leadership skills."

"The new Master's program at RISEBA - International Business - is an exciting adventure provided by the enthusiastic professors and people that You meet there. The content of the studies is encouraging creativity; the teaching methods differ considerably from the ones I had used to before by putting the focus on team-working skills, communication, worldwide case studies and knowledge sharing."
